(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

Upon checking PAIR, the Applicant noted that a Notice of Non-compliance had been sent to him but had then been returned to the USPTO. The Applicant has never received the Notice of Non-Compliance. However, since the Applicant unexpectedly became aware of that Notice through PAIR, the Applicant was able to download the Notice. Unfortunately, the deadline to reply to the Notice, (March 21, 2007), is now well and truly passed.

The Applicant would have ensured to reply to the Notice in good time, had the Notice been received. No Notice of Abandonment has yet issued but the Applicant would like to revive this application as soon as possible in order to avoid any further delays. A reply to the Notice of Non-Compliance is enclosed, together with petition fee and adequate showing of the cause of unavoidable delay.

PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION FOR PATENT ABANDONED
UNAVOIDABLY UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(a)

Commissioner for Patents
Washington, District of Columbia 20231

Dear Sir:

In response to the Examiner's Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed on September 21, 2006, the Applicant hereby petitions for revival of this patent application, pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(a).

It is submitted that the Applicant's delay in replying to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment before the deadline set forth in that Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment was unavoidable.

This petition is accompanied by the following:

- (1) A Reply to the Notice Of Non-Compliance.
- (2) The petition fee, as set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(l).
- (3) A summary of the facts of this case showing that the entire delay was unavoidable.

This summary is provided as follows:

- (i) The Applicant noted a Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed September 21, via PAIR, had issued.
- (ii) The Applicant noted that the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment had not been received as it had been returned to the USPTO, even though the address shown on the envelope is correct (copy enclosed).
- (ii) The Applicant became aware that the deadline to the Non-Compliant Amendment had passed.
- (iii) The reason that the Applicant is delayed in replying to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment is due to the initial Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment being returned to the USPTO (copy of PAIR document description listing enclosed). As a consequence, the Applicant was unaware such a Notice had issued at the time.
- (iv) It is submitted that, in the circumstances, the Applicant's entire delay in filing the required reply to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment by the deadline set forth in the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment was unavoidable.

It is requested that this application be revived under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(a).

Very respectfully,

Applicant:
